Dear Friends of Alatheia,

Welcome to our fifth annual Run for the Roses Benefit Gala! We are grateful & honored to have you here tonight, supporting our mission of providing equine therapy to those in need in our community!!

Your partnership with us tonight means together we will say, “Yes!” to assisting our riders gain physical, emotional & mental strength through the healing power of horses. It means together we will make a significant difference to some incredibly special people and together we will continue to make this Valley a very special place. It means you are making it possible for the riders in our program to Experience the Extraordinary - confidence, empowerment and independence as they develop skills and gain strength on the backs of our gentle horses.

Thank you for joining us tonight. We invite you to enjoy the evening and ask that you please lift your paddle high for a great cause!
